

Joint seminar of XIB Capital Partners and Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer

Industry 4.0: Insights from the cutting-edge of Germany's new industrial revolution

* Invitation only

We are delighted to announce that XIB Capital Partners and Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer ("Freshfields") will co-host a seminar on Industry 4.0.

In the seminar, our speaker will explain what the concept of Industry 4.0 is, provide some practical examples of projects (eg German success stories) where industry is being transformed by being connected and by data analytics, and talk about how Industry 4.0 will shape industry from now into the future.

It is great opportunity to understand Industry 4.0 for the future discussions regarding management strategy and M&A strategy.
